Newlyweds
Given Warm
Greeting Here

Waiting at the airport Monday to greet the newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Townsend Netcher who eloped to Yuma that afternoon was Irving Florsheim with a magnum of champagne. The Netchers, she is the former Harriet Taylor, flew to Yuma with Charlie and Virginia Farrell, to be married in a small Presbyterian church.

After salutations and congratulations, Irving Florsheim took the couple to his home where he hosted a wedding reception. Following the reception a wedding dinner was held at the Racquet Club.

The bride looked lovely in a white pique dress, designed especially for the occasion by Hatfield Carnegie. She wore gardenias pinned to her shoulder and a diamond necklace.

The table was decorated in pink and white carnations with silver candlesticks at either end.

Mr. and Mrs. Netcher will remain in Palm Springs throughout the week and then fly to New York.

Tennis Club Living Up To Its Name
With Exciting Net Matches Each Day

The Tennis club is living up to the implication of its name more than ever this year. Every day and often at nights heated matches are taking place between tennis enthusiasts. One of the best of these matches was played on Monday evening when Harry Reid and Bob Beck challenged Bob Renker and Rudy Vallee, and when the two Bobs play with Cliff Halstead and Fred Renker, a match invariably takes place that is worth going to see. The long rallies with all four at the net and the clowning that accompanies each game are a "must."

Junior Netters
In Active Play
At Racquet Club

An afternoon tennis class has been organized at the Racquet club for young children, by Dave

Gilliam, the tennis pro. Young people get together at the club on Thursday afternoons at four o'clock and play until sunset.

Among the enthusiasts are Ann and Sue Oliver; Gail, Jean and Jimmy Hicks; Hugh and Carol Stanford; Doreen Ehler, Jimmy Pye, Peter Outcault, Ray Knowles and Eleanor Purcell.

Peace Effort
Can Succeed
Says Speaker

"If Americans will work hard for peace as they did to win the war, there'll be another war," Dr. Richard Atkinson declared before a packed house at the opening meeting of the Palm Springs Woman's club held in their clubhouse last Monday evening. The noted lecturer proclaimed war talk is just what the Russians want; that the United Nations was succeeding step by step and urged his listeners to give that world body more time.

Dr. Atkinson declared that the four greatest dangers facing America today are Communism, Fascism, war, and fear and hatred. Fascism is as dangerous as Communism, he said, but expressed the belief that both could be kept under control without a war. War, he said, is dangerous to Democracy and another one would bring Communism and Fascism to all the world because they thrive on poverty, starvation, misery and chaos. But Russia isn't in any position to fight a war, Dr. Atkinson declared, and doesn't want one.

Presided over by their new president, Mrs. Harold Murphy, the meeting was held in the evening to give the members' husbands an opportunity to attend, and was successful in doing just that. Every chair was taken. They stayed for tea, too, which was served by the members of the club's board of directors.

The meeting was opened with the presentation of the colors by the Owen Coffman Post of the American Legion and invocation by the veterans' chaplain, Fred E. Strombon. Mrs. Josephine Sprague, chairman of the program committee, introduced Dr. Atkinson. To Mrs. Florence Glass goes the credit for the most attractive table decorations in red, white and blue, further carrying out the Armistice Day theme.

Mrs. Murphy welcomed two new members, Mrs. Paul Belding and Mrs. Raymond Hatton. Mrs. Walter McManus, chairman of the membership committee, announced that application for membership had been received and approved by the board of directors from the following:

Asserted Deserter Arrested in Village

Following instruction from Camp Knox, Kentucky, Palm Springs police Wednesday took into custody private Ronald C. Wren, said to be an army deserter. He was turned over to the Provost Marshal of Marshall Field Thursday. Army authorities reported that Wren has been AWOL since July 28.

Speaking of good luck, there is only one Friday the 13th in 1947 on which to have bad luck.

Plans Completed By Auxiliary for Armistice Day Tea

Completed plans for the Armistice Day bridge tea were announced at Wednesday's meeting of Owen Coffman Unit, American Legion Auxiliary, held at the Desert Inn Fiesta house.

As November 11 will mark the nation's twenty-ninth observance of Armistice Day, the local Auxiliary Unit chose next Tuesday as an appropriate day to stage the benefit party at the Desert Inn. Proceeds from the affair will be used toward the purchase of furnishings for the ladies' lounge and meeting room in the American Legion's World War Memorial Building now under construction on Belardo Road.

MANY PALM SPRINGS residents and visitors are anticipating a most enjoyable afternoon. There will not only be tables for bridge but in answer to a number of requests tables will be arranged for pinochle and rummy for those who prefer these games. Pinochle players are asked to provide their own cards. Playing will start at 2 p.m.

A choice prize will be a desert scene painting by Paul A. Grimm, famous artist who maintains a winter home and the Paul Grimm Gallery in Palm Springs. Handsome prizes for the party have been contributed by Thomas M. Holland of the Palm Springs Department Store, Harold E. Murphy, Palm Springs Music Company, and Miss Ruth Sushan, owner of The Tailored Lady. The Desert Inn will serve tea at four o'clock.

TICKETS ARE AVAILABLE for the party and may be obtained from any of the following committee members: Mrs. Harold Lienau, chairman, Mrs. Robert Ellsworth, Unit president, Mrs. A. H. Renier, Mrs. Jay Morrison, Mrs. Tom Kieley, Mrs. G. K. Sanborn, Mrs. Frank Partridge, Mrs. C. V. Knupp, and Miss Inah Peterson, and other Auxiliary members.

Business Women Have Enjoyable Dinner Meeting

Amid colorful autumn festivity, the Palm Springs Business Women's club enjoyed its first dinner meeting of the season Monday at 8:00 o'clock in the dining room of the Royal Palms hotel.

Good fellowship was spurred by Mrs. William Lux's superb piano solos and able accompaniment for the gay community singing by members and guests. Mrs. Lux, Mrs. Helen Jumper, and Mrs. Mary Sharp were honored guests. Mrs. Eva Menard, member and speaker of the evening, held her audience with vivid details of her recent trip to postwar England.

All business women, who are not yet members of this important organization, were urged by President Mildred Veano to attend the breakfast meeting Wednesday, November 17, at 8 a.m. at the Desert Inn Coffee Shop.

Homecoming At Community Church Enjoyed

Members and friends of Community church filled its social room to capacity at the annual Homecoming reception, held on Tuesday evening. The evening's program was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone present.

Participating in the program were four members of the high school Girls choir, the Misses Patricia Fowler, Nancy Nye, Hazel Veith and Joyce Buck, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Lois Lux; pianolouges by Marleen Markham; soprano solo by Mrs. Violet Fowler, and cello selections by Gustave Patzner, with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Jean Blackstone.

Informal talks and reminiscences of vacation fun and travel were made by Fay Brainard, Carl Lykken, George B. Davies, and Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Macarney.

The need of endowments to carry on such research and other museum activities was discussed at length by the directors. It was decided that the board would seek the assistance of a number of scientists from Southern California in planning a long range program and that later on a brochure would be issued setting forth the aims and objectives of the Desert Museum.

The meeting was presided over by Dr. William Colburn, presi-

Research Dep't. at Desert Museum Is Under Discussion

The possibility of adding departments of research to the Palm Springs Desert Museum was discussed this week by its board of directors in conference with Dr. Raymond B. Cowles of U.C.L.A. and an advisory member of the board.

A vast field for research exists in this desert area, in the opinion of Dr. Cowles who spent several months here about ten years ago accumulating data on the effect of high desert temperature on animal life. He also believes that important discoveries may be made through research in desert plant life with a possible contribution to the field of medicine.

Mrs. C. S. Henderson, vice chairman of the Women's Circle, had charge of the general arrangements; Mrs. George Davies, the refreshments, and Mrs. Gordon Clark, the decorations.

The beautiful table centerpiece was the gift of the Palm Springs Florists.

In the reception line were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lykken, Rev. and Mrs. James H. Blackstone, Jr., Miss Maude McQuillan, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Brainard, Mrs. Will Davis and Mrs. William H. Veith.

The meeting was presided over by Dr. William Colburn, presi-

Reservation Land Deal Lands Trio In Midst of Probe

Booked for investigation of grand theft and for investigation of conspiracy to commit grand theft, three men were awaiting hearing in Long Beach today in a deal which involved land on the Indian reservation here.

The trio are John S. Madill, 60, Walter G. Kloppen, 50, and Albert Chollette, 40, all of Long Beach.

Agents from the Corporate Securities Commission in Los Angeles joined the investigation recently.

Howard Perdew, Indian agent here, may be called in to testify in the inquiry into the charges.

PALM SPRINGS WELCOMES Carmelita Hotel

GOOD LUCK on You

The newest addition to the long list of imposing and attractive new buildings welcomed by Palm Springs—is the Carmelita Hotel and Apartments and building. Here is seen the smart front facade of the new edifice that faces onto Palm Canyon Drive. It is situated opposite the Frances Stevens' School in the five hundred block north—on that fashionable street. Smart shops, stores, and offices will occupy the beautiful new building—which serves as entrance to the hotel and apartments in the rear. The grounds with lawns and well landscaped surroundings beckon the visitor inside, where one of the highlights of the pleasant life witnessed, is the beautiful swimming pool in the very center of the hotel's lovely grounds.

GOOD LUCK on Your Opening Next Week End!

The new Carmelita Hotel and Apartments is the dream of many years come true—for its owners and managers, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mutascio—long time residents of Palm Springs. It is a tribute to these gracious people who have for many years served the Village. They and their children, who have grown up with the "Village," have a host of friends here. Honoring one of his daughters, Carmelita, Harry, as he is popularly known, has named the new apartments, hotel and building for her. The attractive and pleasing new apartments are situated on North Palm Canyon Drive, opposite the Frances Stevens' School, and near the center of the Village.

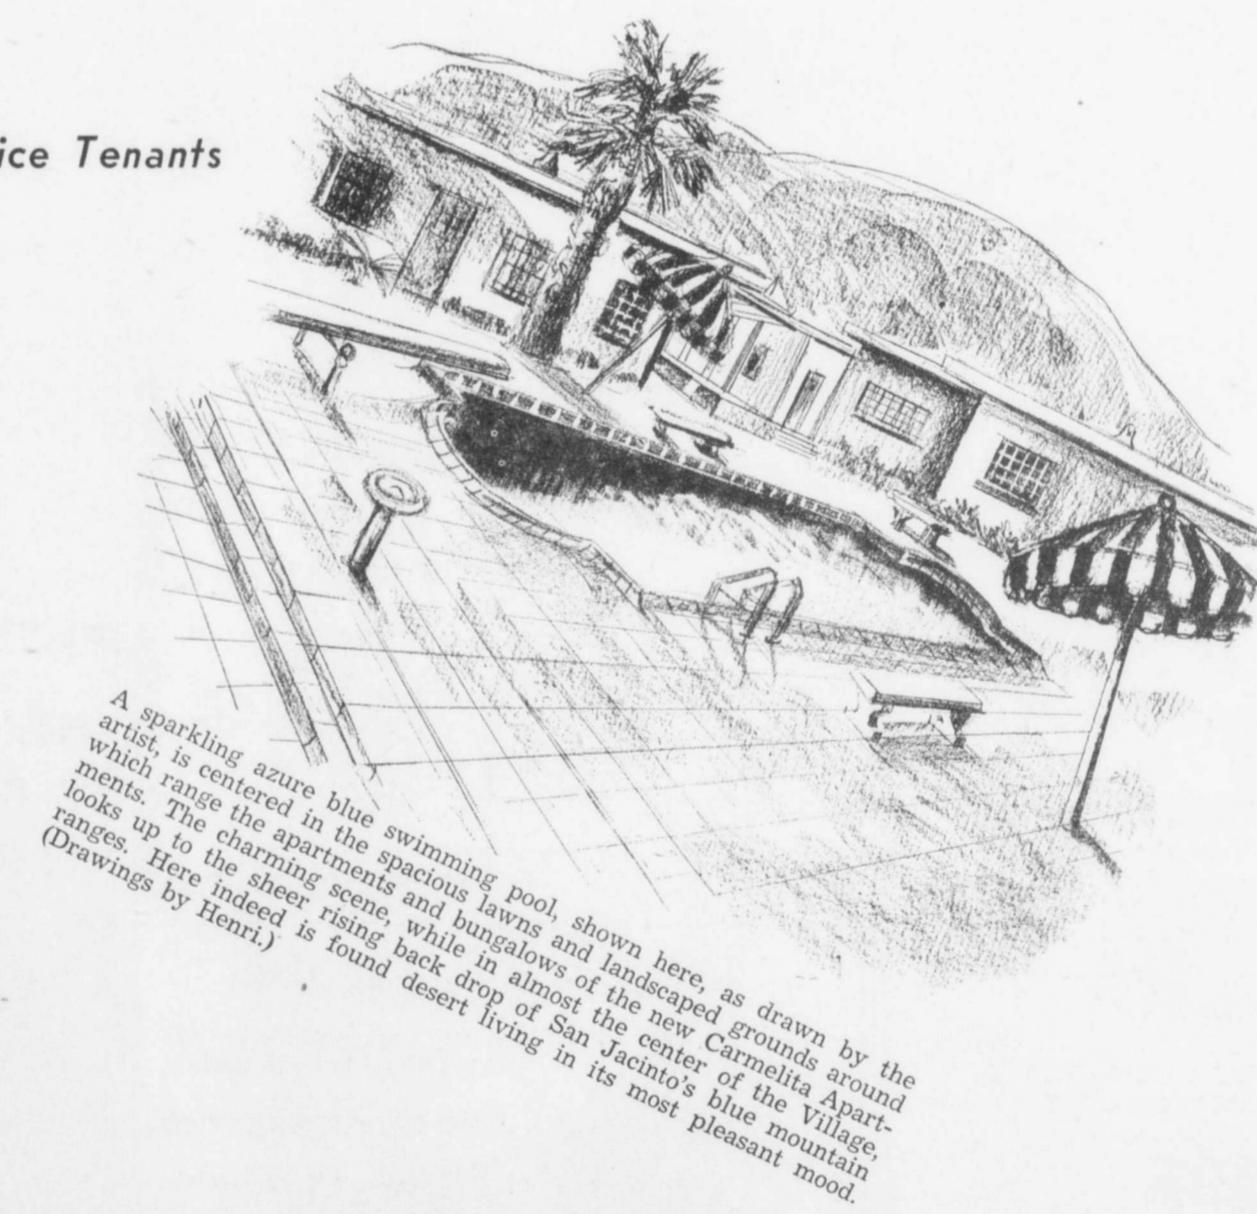

The builder of this handsome new place was Leonard Ward, whose industry and unfailing energies, along with the fine assistance of all sub-contractors, made the early date of completion and opening possible.

Blending with the desert's soft colorings—the light green colors of the buildings sparkling with chrome metal trimmings merge into the pleasant background, and beautifully framed setting of its oasis-like surroundings. The "Carmelita" will become a favored spot for visitors and others.

Overdone Meal

Dinner Overflows on Stove—Firemen Come

If the family of Earl Honaday were hungry around supper time Tuesday night, 6 o'clock, they still couldn't eat the dinner that was prepared.

Smoke pouring out of their home located on the old Ramon Trailer Park, near the Indian Bath House, caused alarmed neighbors to call the Palm Springs Fire department.

When the firemen arrived, all they found was smoke caused by the dinner overflowing from pots and pans onto the hot stove. "No other damage," reported the Fire Department.

What Goes on in Palm Valley

By DON CAMERON

"You think you know Palm done down there.

Valley, but until you've seen it from the air, you don't know anything about it! That's what Roy Bolton, manager of Valley Motors in Indio told me Wednesday while I was waiting for the car to be serviced. With that he whisked me to the Indio airport only one-half mile from town and up in his new Stinson Station Wagon.

He gave me a bird's eye view of the water in the All-American canal flowing toward Indio and Thermal. Then we followed it as it wove its way like a turquoise ribbon through the hundreds of ranches and finally one fork headed up La Quinta way and the other one goes past the 400 acre Crane ranch and ends up at Highway 111 near the Schell packing house. Roy pointed out a new black top road running from Highway 99 south of Edom to a point just one-half mile from Indian Wells. When the last portion is completed this road will be of great value to all of us, making it a short cut to Thousand Palms.

HIDDEN... amidst the stately palms, ranch after ranch, looked beautiful from the air and it is amazing the number of swimming pools that shimmer under cover of the dense greenery. Outstanding in beauty were the two former Kirshner ranches, also the Arkell spot, the famous Billiecke ranch which is the show place of the desert, the Manzo grapes, Farmer Page's Rancho Palm Springs, the King Gillette place and Amos Odell's Rancho Odell, which is laid in grapes.

Buildings are springing up behind sand dunes away out miles from the Hiway and others hidden in caves against the mountains. Coming on up into Palm Valley proper; Palm Dell, Palm Village, Palm Desert, Rancho Mirage and Thunderbird with all their new roads, landscaping and flood control work. It all made me proud to be part of it. I don't know if Roy gives this sightseeing trip to all his customers, but you can try it if you want to see the real McCoy. He tells me that quite often several Indio business men hop in the plane with him at noon, fly to Calexico over to their favorite spot in Mexicali for lunch.

Just in passing, George Charbonneau, former manager of the Desert Inn garage, now of Indio airport, deserves a great deal of praise for the swell job he has

Narcotics Chief Addresses Village Clubs at Luncheons

It costs from $30 to $40 a day for an opium or morphine drug addict to maintain a habit he cannot overcome by himself, Walter Creighton, chief of the state Division of Narcotics told Rotarians and Lions at their respective noon luncheons this week at the Desert Inn. Prices of the drug has increased like everything else, the speaker said, especially since the supply from Manchukuo has been greatly decreased. The supply now comes largely from Mexico and from Central and South America.

Mr. Creighton described the scope of his department's activities including the treatment of drug addicts in state hospitals. The treatment last eight months, he explained, during which time the drug is slowly withdrawn. A great many are hospitalized but only five per cent permanently remain off the drug, Creighton said.

City Treasurer Robert Petersen introduced Creighton at the Rotary luncheon Wednesday and Chief of Police A. G. Kettman introduced him at the Lions meeting Thursday.

The speaker for next week's Rotary meeting, it was announced by Dr. Harold Behneman, will be Dr. John B. Cline, whose subject will be "The Dangers of Socialized Medicine". Dr. Cline is president of the state medical association and professor of medicine at Stanford.

Martha James Opens Office in New Location

Martha James, well known realtor, has announced the opening of her new Real Estate Brokerage offices for the practice at 457 North Palm Canyon drive.

Mrs. James, who has figured prominently in the business and social life of Palm Springs, brings to her clients the benefit of many years of real estate practice. Her experience in title work is also an added advantage to her clientele.

"Palm Springs displays all the evidence of the forethought and careful planning which has gone into the building of this community," said Mrs. James. "Having been established upon such a solid foundation, I know that our city can be assured of a splendid future. Believing in this future for Palm Springs, I am answering the demands which its metropolitan growth will now bring by enlarging the scope of activity in my office. In addition to our usual through counseling service in Real Estate transactions, I am pleased to announce that Raymond Pacquet, public accountant and eminent tax consultant, will be available in the office for consultation on accounting and tax problems, and Graham Dexter, who has been active in business and civic affairs, will be my associate broker. Through the cooperation of this professional talent I am glad to say that in matters of real estate and accounting, we can present a complete service to the community of Palm Springs."

Mrs. Wenger expects to entertain her daughter, Mrs. E. W. Wenzel and family to an early Thanksgiving dinner this coming week end.

Mrs. Lucy Abels is on her way to Honolulu with her sister, Mrs. Jane McCartney, to visit an aunt.

$30,000

Palm Springs Shares In Demuth Estate

Approximately $30,000 is expected by the City of Palm Springs as its share of the estate of Adolph Demuth, within the next week or ten days, it was learned yesterday.

Demuth, long a Villager and property owner, left an estate amounting to approximately $45,000. His will directed that it be distributed in the following manner: $500 to the Palm Springs Rotary Club to be used for the Boy Scout Troop that organization is sponsoring, and $500 to the Wellwood Murray Library.

The balance of the estate was willed to the city for city hall purposes or parks.

What disposition the city will make with the money under the provisions of the will is as yet undecided.

Three Top Executives Confer in Village

Three top executives representing companies interested in the construction of the Mt. San Jacinto Winter Park Tramway were guests of the Desert Inn Wednesday and Thursday discussing plans of the giant aerial lift.

Discussing the project here were Alden Roach, president of the Consolidated Steel Company, Harvey Jordan, vice-president of the American Steel and Wire Company and Gordon Bannerman, Superintendent of Engineering for the same concern.

Also present during the conference was Earl Coffman, president of the Tramway Authority, V. W. Grubbs of Riverside and also a member of the same body, Henry Lockwood, attorney for the San Jacinto Winter Park Authority was present too.

Seattle Finds It Either Too Cold or Too Early for Avak

It must have been the damp weather at this time of the year in Seattle or the early morning hour, which accounted for the failure of a huge crowd to greet Avak Kagogian, the 20 year old "faith healer", when his special train pulled into that city.

Reports from that city have it that the Avak special rolled into the Union Station at 5:45 a.m. and it had been raining in Seattle for a week.

THE YOUTHFUL faith healer donned his long robes and stepped out on the platform, but obviously the greeters unlike those in Los Angeles and Palm Springs had decided to sleep in and stay out of the inclement weather.

Avak went back to bed.

When Avak arose two hours later, he emerged from the train but the crowd was still conspicuous by its absence.

CLARENCE TINKHAM, publicity man for the bearded mystic, sadly opined to newspapermen present:

"I guess nobody gets up before breakfast in Seattle."

Avak was denied entry into Canada part of his itinerary because his temporary six-month visa to this country had expired. Instead he was taken to Seattle's Olympic hotel to await the return of a part of his group who went on to Victoria.

Attractive New Carmelita Hotel and Apartments To Be Opened Next Week

Practically completed, the attractive new building erected by Harry Mutascio at Alejo road and Palm Canyon drive will be formally opened next week.

It contains seven store buildings, nine apartments and 12 hotel rooms.

The hotel has been named the Carmelita after Carmelita Mutascio, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mutascio.

The Mutascio family have been residents of Palm Springs for 23 years and have long been identified with its growth and progress.

The general contractor is Leonard Ward and the building is modern in every respect with an attractive interior and exterior decorative effect.

Meet the Music

With

HAL DAVIS

HI LOVERS!!! The ink is red, the rent is due, my hope is dead, how are you? Pass the bon bons. Welcome to the written version of Ye Old Salami Shoppee. Would like to discuss with you a bit about the latest musical madness.

The subject of hit parade songs first thing:

(1) "Near You." (2) "Fueing, Fighting." (3) "I Wish I Didn't Love You So." (4) "You Do." (5) "I Wonder Who's Kissing Her Now." (6) "Lady From 29 Palms." (7) "When You Were Sweet Sixteen." (8) "An Apple Blossom Wedding." (9) "Kate." (10) "So Far."

As you can see "Near You" is holding its own in the top spot. Three weeks that I can remember. But "Fueing" is really making its way to the top in a rush. From fifth to second in one week. Also notice that oldie that slipped on. "Kate" could make the top just as "Peg O' My Heart" did. Nuff of that.

I GET A KICK OUT of this song recorded by Johnny Mercer and King Cole called "Save the Bones for Henry Jones." It is really a treat in musical humor. Looks like it will be hard for any other outfit but Capitol to record it to sell as it is right down the Mercer-Cole alley. Listen.

Another litter that is coming up in the world, or at least as far as your requestors on the After Shave club are concerned, is "Don't You Love Me Any More." Freddie Martin has recorded it with Clyde Rogers and the Martin Men rendering the pleading lyrics. Buddy Hughes has inked it also. It is a song with maybe's written all over it. Martin has on the tummy side of his, Bill Ansons nightmare, "When I Write My Song." I don't like that song at all but I guess I am nuts, for all over L. A. it was. I kind of think that Anson, being a needle nudge himself, gave the big pitch to the L. A. crowd. It has about as much rhythm as my ears when I wiggle them. But I do like "Don't You Love Me Any More." Shame they have to spoil a good side with a bad one. The record to buy on this one is Buddy Hughes'. Good.

YOU KNOW I am very interested in what you people think of recorded programs or if you will pardon the expression, disc jockey shows. I am numb in all my thoughts about it and would definitely like your opinion as to how a record show should be conducted. Maybe you have never thought about it but there are so many on the air right now that no matter where you go you hear them. What I would like to know from you is do you think that the records should just be spun without any talk on the show, outside of commercials of course, OF COURSE.

Should all types of music be played or should a program specialize in one certain type? Would you drop me a line at KCMJ and give me your opinion? After all you are the listeners and you may number in the thousands and I am just a two headed character trying to please everyone. If I can get new and refreshing ideas from you, you can be assured you will receive credit and publicity on it. So take a couple of minutes, write down your idea of how a record show should be run. Just an outline will do and if your idea is good enough to air then you and I will have a

Vallee to MC Gala Event; Public Invited

Rudy Vallee, Villager and star of screen and radio, will act as the master of ceremonies at the installation of newly elected officers of Palm Springs Post 34, of AMVETS, scheduled for Wednesday November 12 at Charley Morrison's Stables, it was announced yesterday.

AN EVENT to which the public is invited, will see other notables present including State Commander Prentice Smith, William O'Sullivan, housing authority expert, City Manager William E. Alworth and famous persons of the stage and screen.

To be installed that night is Graham Dexter, well known realtor as the new commander succeeding Bill Rashall, Gene Johnson also a realtor will succeed Don Cameron as first vice-commander. The second vice-commander to be given the oath of office will be landscape artist and old time Villager Rudy Salazar. Other new officers include Stanley Schmidt, provost marshal; Bill Morrison, chaplain; Bill Rashall as historian; Ward Copley, treasurer.

TICKETS to the event are being sold by members of the installation committee and can be purchased at the offices of Pegi Scott, The Chi Chi, The Hitching Post, Mr. Dees and other places of business.

Dancing to the music of a good band is also promised.

Chamber Asks City for Aid in Producing New Publicity Folder

A request by the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce for an appropriation of $2500 from city coffers, to pay for the printing and distribution of a colored folder of Palm Springs was referred to the finance committee of county Wednesday.

In referring the request for financial assistance, Mayor Clarence E. Hyde instructed the finance committee to meet with officials of the Chamber of Commerce to discuss the application. The request for funds, submitted in the form of a letter, pointed out the heavy expense under which the Chamber of Commerce has been operating.

The letter also cited the fact that many cities in the state lend considerable support to the activities of organizations such as a Chamber of Commerce.

IN REPLY Attorney Walter A. Brown representing Ham Johns developing a guest ranch and hotel at the northern limits of the city, said council erred in initiating the petition to annex without first consulting the property owners and giving some assurance of what was planned for the land, once it was in the city, in the way of zoning and other regulations pertaining to development.

Property owners in addition to Johns present were Jack Gorham and Joe Leonard, land owners, who also protested against the annexation of their property into the city.

ASKED by Tom Kiely and Nichols to hold their petitions, both men refused.

Joe Leonard bluntly stated that he wanted something concrete in the way of assurance to keep them and taxi-ways in good conditions for a long time.

Young Businessmen of City Urged To Attend Organization Meeting Planned for Next Week

Plans for calling a meeting of young businessmen of the Village to discuss reactivation of the Palm Springs Junior Chamber of Commerce were revealed today by Florian Boyd, president of the senior Chamber of Commerce.

Actual time and place of the gathering will be decided upon in the next few days and announced in the newspapers next Tuesday, and the chamber leader urged that all young business men interested in the organization move plan to attend. It is hoped that the session can be held next week.

BEFORE THE WAR the Junior Chamber of Commerce was active in many civic projects here, working closely in cooperation with the Senior Chamber of Commerce but as an independent organization. It is hoped that the organization can be set up again on this independent basis in order to draw more young men of the community into civic activities.

History of the junior chamber here goes back more than 10 years. Many of the officers, directors and members of the present senior organization received their start in community work in the junior group, according to Mr. Boyd.

IT IS THOUGHT PROBABLE that if a junior chamber is re-activated here it will associate with the national association of junior chambers of commerce which suggests uniform plans of membership and operation. The national convention of this group was held this year at Long Beach. In many cities the boards of directors of the senior and junior groups exchange a representative in order to maintain the close working connection.

In most California cities and towns where the junior chamber is organized its members sponsor celebrations and special events, the younger and more energetic men of the community being better fitted for this type of community activity.

Too Fast

Council Seeks Curb On Speeding Autos

Councilman Floyd Bigley lashed out at fast driving motorists during the regular council meeting Wednesday night.

He warned that motorists after leaving Ramon road driving south travel at excessive speeds and that a serious accident with great loss of life was inevitable unless steps were taken to slow the automobile down.

A motion by Culver Nichols that a letter presenting the compliments of city council be dispatched at once to the district office of the California Highway commission asking for a survey of traffic conditions between Ramon road and the Tahquitz bridge.

DREAM RESORT FOR SALE

A world traveler searched the entire continent of North America to find the most perfect location for building his Shangri-La resort. After many years, he found the perfect setting in a California spot where nature with her beautiful handiwork put placid lakes and flowing rivers chock full of fighting fish, and huge wood in the background filled with game. It is a spot where a discriminating man can find a quiet area for relaxation and spend many happy hours. This world traveler bought the property and built 68 beautiful, picture-esque apts., a swimming pool, huge dining room, and every building for the convenience and comfort of his successful clientele which comes back every year and spends plenty of money here. There are 6000 acres of ground in the property and these control 500 square miles of virgin beauty, hundreds of thousands of feet of choice oak and knotty pine timber. The property includes a mill, a 9-room home, late trucks and everything to make life complete. The property is now worth $100,000, but the owner is forced to dispose of it quickly due to unforeseen circumstances, and we have scaled his price down to $186,000, which is a real sacrifice. $50,000 down will handle. For the fortunate person who buys this, it is literally a gold mine. Here is a fortune for the right operator. Look no time investigating this opportunity!

P.S. If you should prefer a Motor Court, how does this one sound to you? 70 units, doing $20,000 a year gross. Ideally located in Northern California. $30,000 down will handle this deal. For further information on these and other splendid buys, wire, phone or write to

Sheptenko Leaves For San Francisco And Realty Session

Peter B. Sheptenko, well known realtor, this week took off by air for San Francisco where he will attend the 40th annual convention of the National Association of Real Estate boards to be held in the Bay City.

Sheptenko flew north with James Udell, manager of the Taft building at Hollywood and Vine, Hollywood and stopped over at Stockton to visit his parents.

Udell, who is representing the Hollywood real estate board, and Sheptenko will attend the California Real Estate board starting Sunday and the national sessions starting on Wednesday.

Theme of the convention is "Success in Tomorrow's Competition" and top-flight national real estate leaders will outline their views on prices, values and business conditions in the coming years.

Returning to Palm Springs after the convention with the Village realtor will be a group of real estate men from Chicago who plan a brief visit in Palm Springs before returning to the midwestern city.

Success of Year's Program Depends On Cooperation

President Florian Boyd of the Chamber of Commerce, in calling attention to the new sliding scale membership dues of the organization, declared that collection of dues and enrollment of new members was the most important item on the Chamber's agenda at present.

Adopted by the directors on recommendation of the executive committee, the new graduated dues schedule is based on gross revenue of businesses. The minimum dues is fixed at $30 per year as compared with the previous one-price membership of $25 a year, and the maximum is three-tenths of one per cent of the gross of volume done by businesses with totals exceeding $200,000.

UPON THE RESPONSE to the new dues plan depends the extent of its program if not the actual existence of the Chamber of Commerce this season, President Boyd told the directors.

"If business firms of Palm Springs will contribute to the Chamber of Commerce on the basis as set up in this schedule, we can undertake the programs and projects which the organization should tackle and be free of the worry of financing," he said.

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE is rendering an indispensable service to the community. Nearly 5000 persons a month receive some service or information in person at the office. Hundreds of letters of inquiry concerning every phase of life in the Village are answered monthly; thousands of pieces of costly literature are distributed; city maps printed and handed out at the rate of 20,000 a year; community celebrations sponsored or assisted by the Chamber; publications and pictures of this area are furnished to dozens of publications, and the Village is represented at county and state meetings dealing with many phases of business and residence in Palm Springs.

"Business firms established in Palm Springs now are cashing in on the benefits from the services of the Chamber of Commerce in former years, and so each has a responsibility to do its share in maintaining this vital organization so that the economic level here can be maintained at its present high plane," Mr. Boyd said.

HE CALLED UPON all business leaders to join in the movement to place a sound financing "floor" under the Chamber of Commerce program.

The directors also approved a request to the city for additional assistance in its promotional program. A program for a closer cooperation between the Chamber of Commerce and the Desert Circus association also was proposed and will be further discussed with the board of directors of the Circus at the annual meeting next week. A month-long campaign for members and to obtain the necessary financing was inaugurated.

The directors met in the Fiesta House at the Desert Inn.

They've Gotta Keep Our Desert Clean Is Oliver's Dictum

No fooling, something should—and must—be done about keeping the desert clean.

Harry Oliver, who protested to county supervisors against the way the desert was left after the Big Inch gas line was laid from Blythe to the west county line, said he was going to keep after the matter until the ditch was adequately filled in and the hundred-mile scar eradicated from the face of the desert.

But that is not all, he said. "You people just cleaned up Palm Springs—a bigger organization to keep the desert clean should be started, too. Just because it has a lot of wide open spaces, people toss things far and wide carelessly, they dump rubbish, line the roads with empty whiskey flasks and beer tins, remains of lunches. I like people but some of them are indescribably filthy and carry carelessness to a high and efficient degree," he went on.

"Before you know it, the desert isn't going to be what people come out here for. Then they won't come. Let's keep the wide open spaces as they are. Not wide open for dumping rubbish and spaces to throw empty bottles."

England's annual coffee consumption normally amounts to 14,000 tons, or about three-fourths of a pound per head of the population.

Guests are called for at their residences. Horses are handicapped to suit the needs of the rider. A tallyho is furnished to those who would rather ride the buggy route, making it possible for old and young alike to take part in a gaily ride through scenic desert country, breakfast is served right from the chuckwagon.

Western entertainment is usually a part of the program.

There's a cowboy singer on hand, trick roping and group singing.

The Western atmosphere is accentuated by the colorful attire of the guests, ranging anywhere from blue shirts, jeans and neckerchiefs to the latest in cowboy tailoring.

Boys and Girls to Be Special Guests At Plaza Theater

Girl Scouts and Brownies, Boy Scouts and Cubs, and boys and girls who have performed outstanding deeds in the clean-up campaign, will be special guests of Earl Strobe of the Palm Springs and Plaza Theaters, and Lee Duncan, owner of Rin Tin Tin III at a theater party this week end. They will see "The Return of Rin Tin Tin" in its World Premiere at the Plaza theater and meet Rin Tin Tin, the Third, and his trainer and master, Lee Duncan, in person.

RIN TIN TIN III is called the best trained dog in the world and Duncan, the best trainer. The pair will be hosts, with Earl Strobe, to Village youngsters.

Girl Scouts and Brownies will attend the 7 p.m. show this evening. Girls of the elementary district who have been designated by Miss Katherine Finchy, Desert District superintendent, as doing the most outstanding work in the clean-up campaign, will also be guests.

ON SATURDAY EVENING at 7 o'clock, Boy Scouts and Cubs and boys who did outstanding work in the clean-up, will be the theater's guests.

Members of the Scouting organizations from Desert Hot Springs and from Cathedral City will also be in the party.

Mrs. B. H. Poliak is arranging for the Girl Scouts attendance and Scott Thompson, Scoutmaster, is handling the boys' party.

Shoemen Sol(e)d on Palm Springs

Trio Here from East Coast To See Whether
Their Wives Would Like Desert—So They Say

Three wise men from the East "cased" Palm Springs over the week-end.

Their mission here was to see if their wives, now in Boston, would prefer to winter in Palm Springs instead of Miami, Florida, where they said the ocean zephyrs which come screaming in over the land frightening men, women and children, leveling homes, hotels, and giant palm trees.

THE THREE MEN all from the town where the biggest tea party in the country was held, Boston, are "sole and heel" manufacturers.

There was Ben Stone, co-owner of Stone-Tarlow company, Boston, Massachusetts, manufacturers of the shoe called "elevators." These are the shoes that received such wide publicity in Reader's Digest last May and in Life magazine.

The second man was William Solar, executive vice-president of Compo Shoe Machinery corporation. Completing the trio was Robert Goldstein, president of the Plymouth Shoe company.

ORIGINALLY the men left the eastern seaboard to attend a shoeman's convention in Chicago. From the Windy city, they sheepishly declared that it was only a hop, skip and a jump to the west coast.

"Besides," declared Stone, "you know our alibis to the better half will be that we wanted to see if the three men who were guests at the Wonder Palms Hotel and Guest Ranch, left Sunday evening but they are returning before the winter is over with their wives.

"Why this is paradise," they chorused, "why go where you can be blown flat on your face."

THE SHOES were first manufactured for a few select customers back in 1940. Their popularity became so great, mass production was finally started. Today Stone-Tarlow produce the height-increasing shoe by the thousands.

The three men who were guests at the Wonder Palms Hotel and Guest Ranch, left Sunday evening but they are returning before the winter is over with their wives.

"Why this is paradise," they chorused, "why go where you can be blown flat on your face."

THE SURE CURE for a woman when she was feeling low, depressed, melancholic, blue or merely bored... used to be the purchase of a new hat. It still is... but time passes, fashions change, and anyway... hats are seldom worn in Palm Springs.

WHAT is the alternative?... a scarf, of course. There is something about a scarf which is just as irresistible as a hat... just as exciting and fortunately, far less expensive... more useful and much more adaptable toward different purposes.

ONE SCARF can serve no end of needs. Just for fun the other day, we checked to see how many different scarf variations we could think of... twenty-five came to mind in just about that many minutes and with a little more time, we are sure the count could easily be increased.

From head to toe... some ideas:

The peasant style scarf for the head is basic and universal... the variations are multiple.

FOR ACTIVE WEAR and a most secure manner in which to tie a scarf so that it will not slip, is to tie it so that the edge and not the bias, of the scarf, forms a band around the head... tuck the ends in under the tied band and even the wind through the Banning Pass will have a difficult time undoing the scarf or your hair.

But there are so many uses that if one is interested... observation is better than an attempt to describe in this column.

THE COWBOY neckerchief style is becoming with blouses and sweaters... tied in front, back or side. The scarf folded to make a band around the waist is often more becoming than a belt... tied in front, back or side.

If one is short waisted enough, an effective treatment is to fold the scarf diagonally around the neck and instead of tying the ends... tuck them into your belt.

The scarf with the suit is a classic use by this time... especially worn ascot style. However, a few new ideas have crept in recently. The "sore-throat" wrap is exceedingly smart... and incidentally quite handy in inclement weather. This consists of wrapping the scarf high up on the neck. A scarf tied in a bow at the neck is very popular now and best results are obtained from a soft silk.

SAW AN INTERESTING scarf trick done in connection with a dog collar gold necklace... the scarf was wound in and out... same thing could be done with a bracelet.

Wearability is almost endless and the conclusion is that scarves are valuable for innumerable purposes... even for that "what in the world can I give her that she doesn't have too many of already" problem...

If one enjoys indulging in drama... and why not... a most startling use for a scarf is in the proverbial prima donna manner... walk into a room with scarf flowing from hand. This is one case where a scarf makes itself completely impractical, that is, if one does not think it worth considering useful... the attention compelling effect that can be achieved.

Last Rites Tomorrow
For Winter Resident

Armistice Day is Theme of Program Over Radio KCMJ

Says Hallowe'en Dance Didn't Hit Usual High Spots

By DANIEL LARSON

In the spirit of Armistice Day, the P.S.H.S. radio drama class presented "Germany Is Winning the War" over station KCMJ Thursday afternoon, at 1:45, on their weekly fifteen-minute program direct from the high school auditorium.

The play was about a reporter from a midwestern daily who went to a Veterans' hospital in search of a human interest story for the Armistice Day edition, and a young college professor who had been confined to bed since the fighting in France in 1945. The young veteran had some deep anxiety about a third World War, and was very displeased with the manner in which the British, French, and Americans were handling the occupation and reparations in Germany. He spent the latter three-fourths of the program sighting isolated incidents in an attempt to convince the reporter that the German people were as responsible for the war as their Nazi leaders, and that deep within they were waiting for their chance to make again their bid for world domination.

THE CLASS is under the direction of John F. Schwendiman, radio and speech arts teacher. Heard in the program were: Prentiss—Conrad Nelson, Nurse—Ruthann Hemmens, Announcer—Dora Taylor, German Mayor—Don Reed, Wilson—Chuck Whisenand, Mac—Allen Richards, and French Grandmother—Sue Leonard.

The original script was by Mary Baker and published by the Society for the Prevention of World War Three. Hal Davis was KCMJ's engineer.

The largest glass container plant in the world is located at Alton, Ill.

Gazoozit

By BROWNIE BROWN

It seemed that Brownie Browne's party beckoned to quite a few of the party goers. The masquerade party started off with a few games which seemed to start the party off with a bang. But every good thing must come to an end, so the band started to play. Either the boys in the band had the Saturday night blues or all the band wasn't there, but the band just wasn't up to its usual musical status.

While roaming around in the crowd, I noticed some clever costumes. Morie Aitkin came dressed in an old fashioned night gown; Tony Lupe portrayed the typical western sheriff. The most unique pair of costumes were the pair of boxes painted to represent a pair of dice worn by Norma Smith and Joan Lewis.

During the course of the evening free apples and ice cream were given away while they lasted. The party wasn't a success because there wasn't a very good turnout of high school population. Remember, kids, it's your Youth Center; try using it once in a while; it doesn't hurt a bit.

FRIDAY NIGHT Elsinore won but we showed much better teamwork and sportsmanship than we have previously. Bill Stynes is our latest football sensation.

After the game there was the usual Halloween pranks and a party at L. T. Marlene and Fern, Jerry and Bill, Ruth and Jackson, Joyce and Atkins, Betty and Bob, Nancy and Jim, Marlene and Don, Mary and Chuck, Katie and Coote, and Mable and Eddie.

Mary Louise was frantic when she heard the rumor about Raphael and his major catastrophe—She's still trying to think of a horrible fate for Doro.

The Youth Center had a terrific shindig Saturday night. One and all came in costume and had a gay evening and dancing.

Half the school was at my party at one time or other during the course of the evening. At 12:00 we went to Henson's for wonderful shrimp (plug) and then the tank. After that the girls who stayed for the slumber party and their dates returned for eats and dancing. We finally closed off at a shocking hour.

SOME OF THE DATES for Saturday night were: Mary and Gates, Marlene and Corky, Joyce and Jackson, Ruth and Collins, and then there were the usual steady likes of Cone and K.K., Mable and Eddie, Marlene and Don, Jerry and Bill, and the rest.

Have you heard? Marlene's pet name for Don is Dimples and his for her is Cuddles—cute, huh? (Ed. note—We don't exactly know.)

Bill and Jerry—the "newies" around school make such an adorable twosome.

Noel and Katie seem to find one another very fascinating, anyhow it appears to be pretty permanent.

Bobbie and Rusty's steady affair hit those well known rocks Saturday night—per usual!

All the Chaffey boys (Bill and Ben?) were wondering around P.S.H.S. Monday. Whitehead, Mosely, Bell Frank, Wilson, (who got a partly shave, by the way) and others.

The question: What is Dixie's sudden interest in "Sips'n Snacks"???

Mississippi has 4,000 miles of hard surfaced roads.

Annual Carnival Of Girls Athletic Group on Tonight

The Girls' Athletic Association will hold their annual school carnival tonight, at 6:30 p.m., on the high school grounds. The various classes and clubs are sponsoring the different concessions.

Freshmen are sponsoring the Western Union stand, where anyone may send a telegram. Juniors have set up a "take your picture booth" and a ring toss.

Seniors are in charge of the shooting gallery where you can train your marksmanship, a bingo table, where you can try your luck, and a basket ball booth. Prizes will be given away by the seniors at their stands. The G. A. A. which is sponsoring this carnival has arranged a grab bag and a penny pitching booth. The boys' Letterman Club is sponsoring an interesting booth. A fortune telling booth, cake walk, and fun house are under the leadership of the Girls' League.

Voting for king and queen will take place at the carnival and will cost one thin dime. The candidates are: Pierre and Jerry Williams for the seniors; Jim Weiss and Charlotte McKnight for the sophomores and Jim Dill and Sandra Cordrey for the freshmen. The Tribe submitted Marleen Krower and the Girls' League nominated Tom Raphael.

A dance at which the high school dance band will play, starts at 9:00 p.m. and ends at 11:30 p.m. The admission is ten cents.

Fads and Fashions

Spooks, chills, thrills, and fun of all kinds was had by all at the Youth Center last Saturday night. Huge fantastic faces, black cats, goblins, and witches in traditional Hallowe'en motif were seen wondering around all over town.

On the lighter side of the picture I saw some girls dressed in Hawaiian costumes, as cigarette girls, but the more conservative ones wore their formal.

Incidentally, I think those long skirt styles which are seen everywhere now should have been added to the Hallowe'en parade.

High School Grid Team See Film as Guests of Strebe

Members of the Palm Springs high school football team, cheer leaders and majorettes were guests of Earl Strebe at the Palm Springs theater last night to see the "Spirit of West Point", starring Glenn Davis and Feliz Blanchard in the story of their lives.

Drama, humor, action and romance are all entwined in the film which opened Wednesday and comes to a close tonight. The football scenes had the high school guests cheering.

On the War Path

By MORTY GILBERT

The Palm Springs Indians suffered their third consecutive loss at home last Friday night when the Elsinore Tigers administered a 12-0 shutout to the locals.

A combination of fumbles and intercepted passes at critical moments of the fray stymied the Indians' every offensive threat. It seems as though the fumbles epidemic not only hit the home team but also spread throughout the nation, as witness Navy's 27-0 setback at the hands of the Fighting Irish from South Bend.

Although the Indian line was on a par with the Tigers, they were unable to overcome the errors of omission and commission for which they were responsible.

GOOD DOWN FIELD blocking accounted for one T D for the Tigers and the other resulted after a sustained drive. Both conversions failed, the first on a running play and the second when guard Dick Doro smeared the attempted placement. Bill Stynes, a recent tryout, showed up well.

With two weeks remaining for the local lads to polish up their offense before the next league encounter, we can hope that the Indians can get back on the victory path at the expense of the Sherman Institute from Riverside, the afternoon of November 14th.

Palm Springs Page In Hollywood Guide

David Sturgis, former Palm Springs columnist, has taken over the editorship of the Hollywood Guide and will devote a page of it each issue to a "Palm Springs Guide" he said this week.

He has also taken over the publicity-entertainment director's job for the Garden of Allah, built by Alla Nazimova, famous stage and screen star.

New fossil-hunting techniques, including the use of X-rays, are being tested for application by the University of Southern California and the University of California's Scripps Institute of Oceanography.

The rings on Pismo clam shells are generally a good index of the animal's age, says a scientist in the University of California's Scripps Institute of Oceanography.

Square Biscuits,
Yet!

So at the risk of being called old-fashioned, I'm voting for round biscuits, that fit a hungry man's mouth like no square imitation ever will . . . and for Americans served in the good old-fashioned way, in tall, cool mugs or ordinary glasses, with frosty sides and bubbles winking at the brim!

Think I'll step out to the kitchen for a snack right now!

Conventions Prove Of Great Value to City, Report Shows

"New money" amounting to $350,000 is estimated to have been put into circulation in the Village by delegates that have attended conventions here so far this season, according to computations of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce.

The bulletin announcing the mammoth amount of money spent also states that scores of business firms profited directly from the avalanche of "gold," others benefited indirectly but that the whole community has been helped.

"Your Chamber of Commerce," according to the bulletin, "has spent hundreds of dollars in direct outlays preparing for these conventions, not including the time spent by office help."

Convention chairman M. A. Charleston and his committee are credited with a great amount of work by the Chamber.

Display Sticker

Show That You're Active in C. of C.

Show your Chamber of Commerce sticker.

Attractive window stickers have been issued by the Chamber to all members and Harry C. Harper, secretary-manager, urged that they be prominently displayed in show windows.

"Display your membership emblem where it can be seen to show that you are one of the progressive firms of Palm Springs willing to share in supporting your Chamber of Commerce," Harper said.

Flyer, Overdue Here, Is Sought

L. V. Wilcox, 35, who took off in his light plane from Frederick, Okla., October 29 and has been unheard of since was being sought by his brother Al. Wilcox in Palm Springs Tuesday.

The Villager, seeking aid of the local police department, said that his brother was to have landed here two days after he left Frederick, Okla.

Former Villagers Return on Visit

Dorothy Varnum Dorothy and Dale and Maxime Dorothy of the Silver City Hotel and Motel on the Boulder City highway, six miles from Las Vegas, were in the Village Tuesday looking up old friends.

Dorothy Varnum Dorothy formerly wrote a column for The Desert Sun when a Villager entitled Dots and Dashes. She is now writing a column in the Las Vegas newspaper.

Soroptimists in Busy Gathering

Interesting reports from the different committee heads featured the meeting of the Soroptimists club last Thursday evening with the treasurer's report, showing the sound condition of the group, the outstanding one. The club has made great progress in the short time it has been organized, the report revealed.

Weekly meetings of the club will be held on Tuesdays, hereafter starting with this week's session at the Desert Inn.

$5.76 Top Village
Tax Rate, Lowest
Levy Here $4.98

Breakdown of the tax rate as assessed property owners in Palm Springs and in the Desert District and High School district, reveals that local rates, inside the city range from 5.76 to 5.96 per $100 assessed valuation and outside the city limits, 4.98 to 5.16.

The difference in rates is due to special assessments in certain parts of the city and in the school districts.

INSIDE THE CITY, all pay the $1.00 municipal rate and the $2.34 county rate. In addition, there is the total school rate of 2.24 and the district six county flood control and water conservation rate of 18 cents. A portion of the city is in the Palm Springs sanitary district and pays 20 cents additional for maintenance of this system.

Outside of the city, the municipal rate of $1 is not charged but a 40-cent road district rate is assessed plus the school district and flood control rates. Some parts of the school districts are in different flood zones and pay a different rate.

ASSESSED VALUATIONS on which the tax rate is based within the city is $15,629,330. The high school district assessed value is $20,977,440.

The rate inside the city is as follows:

County rate	$2.34
City rate	1.00
Desert District	.88
Desert Bonds	.31
High School	.65
High School Bonds	.34
Flood Control	.18
Junior College	.06
Total	$5.76
Sanitary District	.20
Total	$4.98

MUSEUM NOTES

By T. D. A. Cockerell

A total of 1065 persons have participated in the various activities offered by the Desert Museum since its opening on October 15. This includes visitors to the Museum, guests at the lectures and motion pictures, and participants in the Saturday field-trips.

New memberships were taken out in the last week by the following persons:

Mrs. Evelyn Clove Allen, David C. Baird, Grace and George B. Davies, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doyle, Mrs. Clara Gates, Lola Griswold and Elsie Gill, Mr. and Mrs. Claude W. Gottschuit, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Hall, Mrs. Dorothy Hutchinson, Major Francis Hutchinson, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Karns, Mr. and Mrs. Richard F. McCarthy, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Powers, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Sobanski.

ON FIELD TRIP—The following persons participated in the field-trip to Murray canyon on Saturday, November 1:

D. S. Andrews, James E. Benzing, T. V. Farrell, Hannah R. Jay, Hal Leland, B. Lempe, Edith and Hedwig Ludewig, Mr. and Mrs. Austen McKay, Dennis Ohler, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Sobanski, Gertrude Souers, Michael Van Dame.

"Multiple metallic foreign bodies present over the left chest and to a lesser extent over the right side." That's how an X-ray specialist reported that a Ramsey county, Minnesota, resident was discovered to have a charge of buckshot in his chest.

IN PERSON—Three Pals! . . . Donald Woods, Rin Tin Tin, III, with Bobby Blake in this scene from "Return of Rin Tin Tin," which will be shown at the Plaza theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Rin Tin Tin and his noted trainer, Lee Duncan, will appear in person at each show.

Rin Tin Tin, III, Stars in Film
Having World Premiere in Village

Rin Tin Tin is back—and the films have him!

The most popular motion picture animal name of all time will make its screen comeback in the new PRC's Vitacolor drama "The Return of Rin Tin Tin," which opened last night at the Plaza Theatre in a world premier and continues tonight and tomorrow.

The canine star of the new film is Rin Tin Tin III, grandson of the famous dog hero, who makes his screen debut in the moving and emotional story of a boy and his dog.

His first screen appearance marks the second phase of Rin Tin Tin III's already exciting career. The five-year-old German shepherd has just recently been discharged from the K-9 Corps and his film contract starts him well on his way to reconversion to "civilian" life.

Rin, and his owner-trainer, Lee Duncan, went into service at the start of the war at the usual salary of a dollar-a-year. Duncan picked thousands of dogs for use by the armed services and he and Rin personally trained several hundred. The new film star was already a well-schooled dog when the war started. He became Duncan's first assistant in teaching other dogs alertness and the technique of smelling out and capturing enemy patrols. Rin never saw service overseas since he was considered too valuable here at home.

Take It Easier

Fewer Accidents So
Rates Are Dropping

A substantial rate reduction on all forms of automobile collision insurance, designed to save the motorists of Southern California approximately $1,000,000 during the next twelve months, was announced Friday by the Automobile Club of Southern California.

The new rates apply to all policies written on or after November 1.

Reductions are being made on the basis of the club's accident experience and reflect a decreased accident frequency, the departments of insurance said.

The fact that Eastside Beer is first choice in Southern California homes has forced us to continue to limit our dealers to quota deliveries. The dealers don't like it—and you don't like it. Naturally you want what you want when you want it. We get the blame. That's our penalty of leadership. Today the demand for Eastside is just about twice what we can supply. We are installing acres of additional equipment, just as fast as it is humanly possible to do so. In the meantime, we appreciate your patience.

You can be sure that whenever you do get Eastside, you get one of the world's finest beers. Quality you can depend on.

Village to Collect $3,979 as Share Of Liquor Licenses

Palm Springs will receive $3,979.37 as its share of liquor license fees for the half year period from January 1, 1947, to June 30, according to figures released by William G. Bonelli, fourth district member of the state board of equalization.

Bonelli said the sum represents half of the amount collected from local places dispensing alcoholic beverages. The state retains the other half. The coming allotment will be the last time the fees are divided as under a new state law enacted this year, the cities will hereafter get all of the fees collected.

Only Riverside city, with an allocation of $5,770, will receive more than Palm Springs in the county payments. The county as a whole will receive $28,334.70 of which all but $8,001.72 will go to incorporated cities.

In the state the collections amounted to more than $5,000,000 and the cities' share was $2,654,125.74.

The payment will be accepted by the city under protest as it has joined with other California cities in maintaining that, under the newly enacted legislation, it is entitled to all license fees collected here instead of half.

VIKING FEAST—Without a great fanfare of publicity, almost a half hundred artists are busy transferring desert scenes, mountain vistas and portraits to canvas in the Palm Springs area. This week more than 100 exhibits of their work was displayed along Palm Canyon drive. One, not shown in the local display but hanging in Chicago, which has won much praise for a Village artist is "A Viking Feast," a mural by Axel Linus, noted Swedish painter. Some of the desert artist's paintings are on exhibit here this week.

Desert Artists on Parade

Three Score Local Artists Display More Than 100 Paintings for Art Week Exhibit

Attracting much attention up and down Palm Canyon drive is the "mile-long" art gallery displaying the works of desert artists in conjunction with observance of American Art week.

Sixty-two artists who make their homes in the Palm Springs vicinity placed 120 paintings in the exhibit.

American Art Week, which ends today, was observed from coast to coast but as there was no local gallery of sufficient size available, the committee in charge of observance here hit upon the idea of displaying the desert artists' works in show windows up and down Palm Canyon drive.

Everybody is invited to this affair. Future events will be for TVT and ATA members only. Waring says a two-week celebration of the progress at Tramview Village will start next week with plenty of features. Tramview Village is the village being built around a trailer park and is booming. It is about five miles from the Village.

The Amazon is the world's greatest river in volume of the water it carries.

The LOCAL AREA comprises that desert section from Desert Hot Springs, through Palm Springs and Cathedral City, on out to Indio and Thermal. All areas were represented in the local exhibits.

The subjects covered a wide variety from desert scenes to portraits.

Marie Ropp of Desert Hot Springs, was chairman for the desert area and Jean Coutts of Palm Springs, daughter of the late Gordon Coutts, internationally famous artist who made his home here, in charge of the exhibit.

PURPOSE OF THE WEEK, it was pointed out, is to acquaint the American public with the work of American artists.

The interest shown in the local display carried out this purpose as Villagers and visitors learned of the work of the desert painters in an extremely favorable way.

Next year it is hoped to stage the exhibit in a suitable gallery.

Palm Springs artists whose paintings were on display included: Earl Cordrey, Alehian (Alehian's Jewelry), Albert Frey Sr., Era Franklin (Art instructor at Francis Stevens), Gordon Coutts, Gertrude Coutts, Jean Coutts, Axel Linus, Elaine Flavin, Andrew Lester (Instructor of art at High School), Carl Hoerman (Rancho Mirage), Robert Daley, (Ranch Mirage), Robert Daley, Grace Morrison, Capt. H. Harris, Lynn Harris, Barbara Sarup (Bombay Restaurant), Thelma Spalding (Spaldings).

Special Session To Consider Rent Control is Urged

Members of Palm Springs Post 34 of AMVETS were today asked by State Commander Prentice Smith, to urge their representatives in the state legislature and senate to ask Governor Earl Warren for a special session to consider rent controls in this state.

The bulletin points out that present rent controls expire on March 1 and that rents will skyrocket under the present housing shortage in California.

"Veterans will not be able to afford a chicken-coop in which to live if rent controls go out," stated Prentice. "Ask your state senator or assemblyman to request Governor Warren to call a special session by November 10 to consider housing and rent control."

The Royal Scot of the London and Scottish Railroad has been in continuous operation since 1848, and claims the distinction of offering scheduled service for more years than any other train in the world.

THE LION AND THE LAMB—The above painting, the work of a Palm Springs' artist, is one of the many fine canvases originating in the Village. It was done by Jean Coutts, and posed by her daughter and pet Great Dane. On exhibit at Laguna if won much favorable mention.

County Doctors To Meet Here

With medical men from all parts of the county planning to be present, Riverside County Medical association will meet tomorrow night in dinner, business and social session at the Tennis Club. Dr. H. M. F. Behneman is in charge of arrangements. Dr. John W. Cline, president of the California Medical association will speak on "The Future of Medicine." Dr. Cline will also address the Community hospital staff next Tuesday night and the Rotary Club Wednesday noon.

President of WAL And Aides Will Be Honor Guests Here

Terrell Drinkwater, president of the Western Air Lines, and more than a dozen of his department heads in the vast air network, will be honored at a breakfast meeting at the Desert Inn on Monday, Nov. 17, as his party completes a 5500-mile survey of the western part of the United States.

The airline party will arrive here by automobile on Saturday afternoon after swinging through San Diego and Imperial counties. The entire trip has been made by automobile to afford the departmental chiefs a closeup view of the country under survey. Plans for the party's stay here are being arranged by the Chamber of Commerce.

CIVIC AND MUNICIPAL leaders will be invited to attend the breakfast Monday morning where Mr. Drinkwater will address the group on aviation travel subjects and then throw the meeting open for a general question and answer period in which his department heads will provide the technical information.

Plans for a tour among the new developments of the Palm Springs area are being made for the party by the Chamber of Commerce for Sunday.

On the 5500-mile tour through the western part of the United States, the party drove through Nevada, Utah, Montana, Washington and Oregon. Palm Springs is the last stop on the survey trip.

Wives of the men will join their husbands here Saturday night for a weekend visit in Palm Springs.

Daytime noise on the average busy street of an American city is loud enough to make the normal person one-fourth to one-third deaf according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica. There is no dependable evidence, however, that life or work in noisy places decreases the acuteness of hearing except during the first few minutes after the noise stops.

News of Ramon Trailer Park

At Ramon last Saturday night, a large crowd enjoyed the "Hard Time" Halloween dance. Prizes for the two best "hard time" characters went to Mrs. L. R. Newell and Harry Irvin. During intermission Mrs. Newell entertained with western songs and yodeling, accompanying herself on the guitar. Doughnuts and punch were served to about a hundred guests.

Artists who live in the park have been busy lately trying to get work finished before the days get short. Mr. Sturm is one who loves to paint the desert scenes. The ladies gym class will start next Monday morning at 10:00 a.m. with Mrs. Alma Petersen again as leader.

AMONG the late arrivals are the Sharrocks who spent the summer in the Canadian Rockies. Mrs. Fred Goodin, Don Smith and Jim Mindheim have just this week brought their trailers here from Treasure Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Billinger have a new Curtis Wright trailer which is just the last word in trailers. Dr. and Mrs. McRae have written us that their trailer was partly wrecked on their way here from Santa Cruz. The accident happened at Paso Robles. Fortunately the McRaes received no injuries.

Mrs. Arthur Haddock has returned home after spending a month in Washington, D. C. and daughters and their families. One Norfolk, Va., visiting her two daughter, Mrs. Ralph Osborne has with her husband and daughter recently returned from a year in Germany where they were with the army of occupation there.

Word has been received from the Herman Steubings who expect to be rolling in to Ramon in a few weeks. They were delayed in coming earlier because of the serious illness of Mr. Steubing. He has been undergoing treatment in the Hollywood hospital and is now making rapid progress towards recovery, which is good news to their many friends here.

Mrs. Laura Simmons and her happy little mother Mrs. Collister, having sold their home in Phoenix, Arizona are settled here for the season. Mrs. Alma Gravel is one of the later arrivals and is located on her old lot.

AFTER A SUCCESSFUL month of deer hunting in Shasta county, Jean and Herb McCulloch write from Tule Lake where they are hunting geese and ducks. From there they will go to the Trinity River country for steelhead fishing, then wind up their vacation hunting pheasants near Yuba City. The date set for their arrival at Ramon is Dec. 1st. Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie McManus enjoyed a three-weeks vacation at their trailer and cabana in the park.

The many Palm Springs friends of the D. J. Toppers will be glad to know they are now settled here for the season. Their home is Los Angeles.

Major and Mrs. H. W. Hollingsworth are nicely settled in their cozy trailer and cabana.

Three Held for Shooting Hearing

Alfred Fuentes of Banning, charged with an attempt to kill his wife, Lily, who is in a serious condition at Riverside hospital suffering from two bullet wounds, was in county jail today in lieu of $10,000 bail. His preliminary hearing was set for Nov. 26.

Also held on $10,000 bail were Adrian Fuentes, his brother, and Maria Quinto, nurse, accused of

Monday Will Be Marine Corps Day in Village

Mayor Clarence A. Hyde Wednesday issued a proclamation proclaiming Monday November 10 as Marine Corps Day, marking the 172nd anniversary of that military organization in this country.

Since the founding of the Marine Corps in 1775, its members saw action in 102 of its 172 years.

The proclamation points out that for over a century and a half the United States Marine Corps has stood as a fortress of American freedom and symbol of American courage throughout the world, on land, in the air and on the sea.

The observance of the anniversary on November 10 will mark the opening of a program for enrollment in the United States Marine Corps Reserve.

New York's Wall Street received its name from a boundary wall built across Manhattan island by the Dutch settlers in 1633 to protect them from possible attack by the English, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

The annual United States soybean harvest has grown to 200,000 bushels from which approximately one and one third million pounds of soy-bean oil is derived.
